

Join us to learn about

DISABILITY SUPPORTS IN CANADA

Attend in person at Cardel Theatre - 180 Quarry Park Blvd S.E. Calgary or by web from anywhere

Webcast facilitated by Mike Finch

Discussion moderated by Dr. Eleanor Stein

Sponsored by the National ME/FM Action Network

Date: Friday June 16th 2017

Time: 1 – 4:30 pm Mountain Daylight Time

For FREE registration go to: www.selfconnection.ca/stein

SPEAKERS

CPP-Disability: Kris Johnson (speaking by web from Ottawa)

Kris is the Director General of the CPP-Disability Directorate - Employment and Social Development Canada.

AISH (Provincial Disability Support – Alberta): Dale Beesely (speaking by web from Edmonton)

Dale is the Statutory Director for the AISH program and Acting Executive Director of Financial Supports - Alberta Ministry of Community and Social Services.

Do I have a case? James Ludwar (in person)

James Ludwar is a benefits and disability lawyer in Calgary who serves Alberta and Saskatchewan who has represented many individuals with ME/CFS and FM.

Employment and disability: Hugh Scher (speaking by web from Toronto) Hugh has been involved in some of the most important disability decisions for ME/CFS in Canada. Scher Law has offices in Toronto and Ottawa.

Discussant: John Wodak (speaking by web from Edmonton)

Over the past 20+ years John has provided assistance to more than 700 individuals applying for CPP-D and/or AISH.

For more information contact:

Mike Finch at 403-689-0434 or by email at mike.g.finch@gmail.com or

Dr. Eleanor Stein at: 403 287-9941 or by email at espc@eleanorsteinmd.ca